Daniel P. Shove Dead at Age 82
— 1946

Was Member of Somerset Board of Assessors

Daniel P. Shove, 82, widely known judge of poultry and a member of the Somerset Board of Assessors for many years, died this morning in a local hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Elizabeth (Rice) Shove of 1043 Prospect Street, Somerset.

DANIEL P. SHOVE

First president of the Rhode Island Red Club, Mr. Shove had judged poultry in every State in the Union. He raised bantams for show purposes himself, and his houdons, a fancy breed, were famous.

He was a charter member of Pioneer Lodge, A.F. and A.M.; Bethlehem Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; Azab Grotto, MOVPER; Somerset Grange; and Fall River Lodge of Odd Fellows. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 P. M in the Hathaway Home for Funerals.

SHOVE Passed on in this city Dec 31 Daniel P. Shove, aged 82 years, husband of Elizabeth (Rice) Shove. Residence 1043 Prospect Street, Somerset. Services at the Hathaway Home for Funerals 1813 Robeson Street Fall River, Friday, Jan. 3 at 2 P. M. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Calling hours Thursday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 P. M. Interment at Nathan Slade Cemetery, Somerset. 1946

MRS. SARAH B. CORY.

Mrs Sarah B Cory wife of George H Cory, died Monday at her home on Stafford road, Tiverton, after a long illness, at the age of 56 years. She was a daughter of the late William I. Ray, for many years an employe of the composing room of The Evening News and in her youth entered The News office where she became a compositor, in the days of typesetting by hand. Later with the introduction of typesetting machinery she became a linotype operator, and as such was employed for a long period in the offices of The News and the Globe. Mrs Cory was of a genial and sunny disposition, and made many friends. She is survived by her husband and a daughter.

MILLARD—At the Masonic Hospital, Shrewsbury, Mass., March [illegible], formerly of Bristol, R. I., Annie E. M[illegible], [illegible] year. Funeral from the Mortuary Chapel, Bristol, R. I., Tuesday, March 4th, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

MRS. SARAH GELL

Mrs. Sarah (Vickers) Gell, 71, widow of William Gell, of 168 Luther Avenue, Somerset Center, died yesterday noon at a Fall River hospital after a short illness.

Born in Manchester, England, she came to this country a half-century ago, and lived in Somerset for 35 years.

She was a member of the Friends Meeting Club of South Somerset.

She leaves four sons, Alfred V. of Muskegon, Ala., William H. and Arthur of Somerset Center, and Lt. Col. T. Wesley Gell of the U.S. Army Air Force Base in Montgomery, Ala.; three daughters, Mrs. Fred Emmett and Mrs. Frances Brisborn of Somerset Center, and Mrs. Sidney L. Hathawy Jr. of Somerset Village; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Southam, Mrs. Martha Walker and Miss Harriet Vickers of England; two brothers, Thomas of Taunton, and Samuel E. Vickers of England, 14 grandchildren and one niece.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Hathaway Home for Funerals, Fall River, with burial in Gibbs Cemetery, Somerset Center.

...report, also is criticized for moving the chlorinator from its original position in the chlorine room to the laboratory to treat the sewage as it leaves the plant instead of when it enters the plant, making it "necessary to use more chlorine in order to get a proper residual reading."

32,000 Pounds of Chlorine

Because of this change, the commission's report said, more than 32,000 pounds of chlorine were used last year to treat the sewage as against about 15,100 pounds in 1948. Less chlorine was used in 1948, the report went on, because "the former superintendent had the chlorinator closed

PRIVATE CLARENCE R. COUPE KILLED IN ACTION IN FRANCE, AUG. 27. 1918

See p 68

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Coupe of Swazey's Corners, who received word in September that their son, Private Clarence Reed Coupe, was reported missing in action since Aug. 27, received a telegram Wednesday, informing them that he was killed in action on that date. The last word Mr. and Mrs. Coupe received from him was a card, written Aug. 23, four days before his death, stating that he was well and would write a letter soon. Private Coupe is the first Swansea boy to make the great sacrifice for his country, and humanity. He was drafted Feb. 27, 1918, going into Co. G, 306th Infantry, Camp Devens, and had been overseas since March. At the time he was drafted, he was employed at the Swansea Dye Works, where he was a favorite with his co-workers, who, on his departure for Camp Devens, generously remembered him with a purse of money and articles of use and comfort to a soldier. Private Coupe was the youngest son of Ralph Emerson and Sarah (Lord) Coupe and was born in Fall River, but had lived in Swansea since early boyhood. He was in his 25th year. Those who survive him are his parents and a brother, Private William Coupe, who is in the limited service at Camp Merritt, N. J.; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Sylvia, of Thompson street, Fall River, Miss Harriet L. Coupe of Swansea, a junior in the Fall River High school, and Miss Clara M. Coupe, also of Swansea, who is employed in the Willard Service Garage, Fall River, and who first received the telegram announcing her brother's death, which so prostrated her that she had to be carried to her home. Her condition was so serious that a physician's services were necessary, and she was still in a state of collapse late in the afternoon.

PRIVATE CLARENCE R. COUPE.
